2. Profit and Loss Expectations at Maturity
Profit and Loss Expectations at Maturity	Warrants provide an opportunity to profit from changes in the Underlying asset through leverage. Profit Expectations for Call-Warrants are basically unlimited; Loss Expectations are limited to the invested capital. The value of a Call Warrant generally falls as the price of the Underlying declines. The value of a Warrant changes more than the value of the Underlying, owing to the leverage effect. The value of a Warrant can fall even if the value of the Underlying remains unchanged, because of a lower time value or an unfavourable shift in supply and demand.

3. Material Risks for Investors

Issuer Risk

Obligations under this Warrant constitute direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu with other direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer. The value of the Warrants depends not only on the performance of the Underlying asset and other developments in the financial markets, but also on the solvency of the Issuer, which may change during the term of these Warrants.

Specific Product Risks

Warrants entail the risk to lose the initial capital (Issue Price) entirely. They are only suitable for investors who have the requisite knowledge and experience and understand thoroughly the risks connected with an investment in these Warrants and are capable of bearing the economic risks.

If the Warrants are denominated in a different Currency than the Underlying, the investor bears any accrued exchange rate risks.

Warrants do not yield current income. Call-Warrants usually lose value and expire worthless at maturity, if the price of the Underlying and/or the Volatility do not increase. Thus, the maximum risk is the loss of the invested initial capital.

4. Additional Terms

Modifications

If an Extraordinary Event as described in Section IV of the Issuance Programme occurs in relation to the Underlying / a component of the Underlying or if any other extraordinary event occurs, which makes it impossible or particularly cumbersome for the Issuer, to fulfil its obligations under the Warrants or to calculate the value of the Warrants, the Issuer shall at its free discretion take all the necessary actions and, if necessary may modify the terms and conditions of these Warrants at its free discretion in such way, that the economic value of the Warrants after occurrence of the extraordinary event corresponds, to the extent possible, to the economic value of the Warrants prior to the occurrence of the extraordinary event. Specific modification rules for certain types of Underlying stated in Section IV of the Issuance Programme shall prevail. If the Issuer determines, for whatever reason, that a adequate modification is not possible, the Issuer has the right to redeem the Warrants early.

Market Disruptions

If, due to the occurrence of a Market Disruption in relation to the Underlying/a component of the Underlying no market price can be determined, the Issuer or the Calculation Agent shall determine the market price of the Underlying/the component of the Underlying at its free discretion, considering the general market conditions and the last market price of relevant Underlying/component of the Underlying affected by the Market Disruption and has the right, if the Market Disruption persists on the Redemption Date, to postpone the Redemption Date to the first Banking Day on which the Market Disruption has terminated. The specific provisions in the Issuance Programme shall prevail. This provision shall apply accordingly for the determination of the value of the Derivative, if its Underlying/a component of the Underlying is affected by a Market Disruption.

The selling restrictions contained in the Issuance Programme are applicable (EEA, U.S.A./U.S. persons, Guernsey).
