Key Elements of the product

ZKB Knock-out Barrier Capital Protection Note with Rebate is an investment product, which combines the purchase of an "at-the-money" Call option with Knock-out and a bond investment. If the price of the Underlying has never touched or traded above the Knock-out Level during the lifetime of the product, the Redemption will be 100.00% of the Denomination plus 100.00% participation on the upside performance of the Underlying from the Exercise Price on. If the Underlying has traded at or above the Knock-out Level during the lifetime of the product, the option part expires on that respective event. Then the Redemption at maturity will be 100.00% of the Denomination plus a Rebate Payment of 4.00% of the Denomination. In this connection, the Rebate Payment is considered to be the compensation for the loss of the upside participation. If the Underlying closes below the Exercise Price on the Final Fixing Date, and has never traded at or above the Knock-out Level between Initial Fixing Date and Final Fixing Date, the Redemption will be 100.00% of the Denomination.

Taxes

The product is considered as transparent and IUP (Intérêt Unique Prédominant). The implied internal rate of return is subject to income tax for private investors with Swiss tax domicile at sale or maturity (IRR 2.67% p.a., present value of bond part at issue 94.87%) and is determined in compliance with the "modifizierte Differenzbesteuerung" tax rule based on the ESTV Bondfloor Pricing method. The applicable daily exchange rate for foreign currency translation purposes may be an important factor. Any return derived from the option part qualifies as capital gain and is not subject to Swiss income tax for private investors with Swiss tax domicile. The product is not subject to Swiss withholding tax. The Federal securities transfer stamp tax is levied on secondary market transactions for securities with initial duration of less than one year. This product may be subject to additional withholding taxes or duties, such as related to FATCA, Sect. 871(m) U.S. Tax Code or foreign financial transaction taxes. Any payments due under this product are net of such taxes or duties.

The information above is a summary only of the Issuer's understanding of current law and practice in Switzerland relating to the taxation of structured products. The relevant tax law and practice may change. The Issuer does not assume any liability in connection with the above information. The tax information only provides a general overview and can not substitute the personal tax advice to the investor.

If the Final Fixing Level trades above the Exercise Price, the performance of the Underlying from the Exercise Price on multiplied by the Participation Rate will get realised only, if the Underlying has never touched or traded above the Knock-out Level during the lifetime of the product. If the Underlying has touched or traded above the Knock-out Level, the Redemption is according to the Minimum Redemption plus the Rebate Payment. If the Final Fixing Level is below the Exercise Price, the capital protection of 100.00% is guaranteed.

The table above is valid at maturity only and is by no means meant as a price indication for this Structured Product throughout its lifetime. The price of this Structured Product depends on additional risk factors between the Initial Fixing Date and the Final Fixing Date. The price quoted on the secondary market can therefore deviate substantially from the above table.

3. Material Risks for Investors

Issuer Risk

Obligations under this structured product constitute direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu with other direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer. The value of the structured product not only depends on the performance of the Underlying and other developments in the financial markets, but also on the solvency of the Issuer, which may change during the term of this structured product.

Specific Product Risks

Structured products are complex investment instruments, which entail considerable risks and, accordingly, are only suitable for investors who have the requisite knowledge and experience and understand thoroughly the risks connected with an investment in these structured products and are capable of bearing the economic risks.

The loss potential of an investment in ZKB Knock-out Barrier Capital Protection Note with Rebate is at Maturity limited to the difference between the paid price and the Minimum Redemption. Nevertheless, during the lifetime of the product, the ZKB Knock-out Barrier Capital Protection Note with Rebate may trade at a lower value than the Minimum Redemption. The product is denominated in EUR. If the investor's reference currency differs from the EUR, the investor bears the risk between the EUR and his reference currency.

4. Additional Terms

Modifications

If an extraordinary event as described in the base prospectus occurs in relation to the Underlying/a component of the Underlying or if any other extraordinary event occurs, which makes it impossible or particularly cumbersome for the Issuer, to fulfill its obligations under the products or to calculate the value of the products, the Issuer shall at its own discretion take all the necessary actions and, if necessary may modify the terms and conditions of these products at its own discretion in such way, that the economic value of the products after occurrence of the extraordinary event corresponds, to the extent possible, to the economic value of the products prior to the occurrence of the extraordinary event. Specific modification rules for certain types of Underlyings stated in the base prospectus shall prevail. If the Issuer determines, for whatever reason, that an adequate modification is not possible, the Issuer has the right to redeem the products early.

Change of Obligor	The Issuer is entitled at all times and without the consent of the investors to assign in whole (but not in part) the rights and claims under individual structured products or all of them to a Swiss or foreign subsidiary, branch or holding company of the Zürcher Kantonalbank (the "New Issuer") to the extent that (i) the New Issuer assumes all of the obligations arising out of the assigned structured products which the previous Issuer owed in respect of these structured products, (ii) the Zürcher Kantonalbank enters into a keep-well agreement with the New Issuer with terms equivalent to the one between the Zürcher Kantonalbank and Zürcher Kantonalbank Finance (Guernsey) Limited, (iii) the New Issuer has received from the supervisory authorities of the country in which it is domiciled all necessary approvals for the issue of structured products and the assumption of the obligations under the assigned structured products.
Market Disruptions	Compare specific provisions in the base prospectus.
Prudential Supervision	As a bank within the meaning of the Swiss Federal Act on Banks and Savings Banks (BankG; SR 952.0) and a securities firm within the meaning of the Swiss Federal Act on Financial Institutions (FinlAG; SR 954.1), Zürcher Kantonalbank is subject to the prudential supervision of FINMA, Laupenstrasse 27, CH-3003 Bern, https://www.finma.ch .
Recording of Telephone Conversations	Investors are reminded that telephone conversations with trading or sales units of Zürcher Kantonalbank are recorded. Investors, engaging in telephone conversations with these units provide their tacit consent to the recording of their conversations.
Further Information	This document constitutes neither an offer nor a recommendation or invitation to purchase financial instruments and can't replace the individual investor's own judgement. The information contained in this document does not constitute investment advice but is intended solely as a product description. An investment decision should in any case be made on the basis of these Final Terms and the base prospectus. Particularly, before entering into a transaction, the investor should, if necessary with the assistance of an advisor, examine the conditions for investment in the product in consideration of his personal situation with regard to legal, regulatory, tax and other consequences. Only an investor who is aware of the risks of the transaction and has the financial capacity to bear any losses should enter into such transactions.
Material Changes	Since the end of the last financial year or the date of the interim financial statements, there have been no material changes in the assets, financial or revenue position of the Issuer and Zürcher Kantonalbank.
Responsibility for the Final Terms	Zürcher Kantonalbank, Zurich, and Zürcher Kantonalbank Finance (Guernsey) Limited, Guernsey, assume responsibility for the content of these Final Terms and hereby declare that, to their knowledge, the information contained in these Final Terms is correct and no material circumstances have been omitted.
