Information on the Underlying

The information in this section have been adjusted due to underlying modifications.

The ZKB Sustainability Index family tracks the performance of companies, which are among the most sustainable in their respective categories. On 16 October 2009, the ZKB Sustainability Index family consists of the following categories, Solar, Wind, Sustainable Energy Production, Water, Mobility, Resources and Efficient Energy. The Indices of the ZKB Sustainability Index family are dividend adjusted. The prices are published in CHF. The net dividends are reinvested in the index components. Further information of the Indices can be found on ZKB homepage, www.zkb.ch/meinindex.

ZKB Sustainability

Sustainable economic growth aims to consider economic, social and environmental aspects in equal measure. In this way, natural resources would be preserved for the next generation so that the Earth remains balanced. Businesses following a progressive sustainability strategy manage to harmonize the three targeted aspects such as

- utilising resources economically, reducing pollution, optimising production accordingly
- assuming social responsibilities and dealing with issues together with important stakeholders
- possessing profitability and economic success in the long term.

The selection of the underlying shares in the Index was accomplished through implementing an extensive sustainability research process, that the most sustainable companies are considered. A set of strict decisive criteria are applied to the Sustainable Indices. The current process of the sustainability analysis is published on the ZKB homepage.

The performance of the ZKB Tracker Certificate follows the performance of the Underlying. Differences are due to the annual fees as well as the reinvested dividends. Therefore, Profit and Loss expectations are analog to the performance of the components of the Underlying less any Fees.

The figures in the table above are valid after Year 1 only and cannot be considered as a price indication for the present Structured Product during its lifetime. The price of this Structured Product depends on additional risk factors between the Initial Fixing Date and the Final Fixing Date. The price quoted in the secondary market can differ substantially from the table above.

3. Material Risks for Investors

Credit Risk Relating to Issuer

Obligations under these Structured Products constitute direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu with other direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer. The value of the Structured Product does not only depend on the performance of the Underlying and other developments in the financial markets, but also on the solvency of the Issuer, which may change during the term of this Structured Product.

Specific Product Risks

Structured products are complex financial instruments, which entail considerable risks and, accordingly, are only suitable for investors who have the requisite knowledge and experience and understand thoroughly the risks connected with an investment in these structured products and are capable of bearing the economic risks.

ZKB Tracker Certificate is an investment product whose price fluctuates to the same degree as the Underlying. Depending on price movements, the price of a ZKB Tracker Certificate could fall below the Issue Price. The risk profile is equal to the one of the Underlying. The is denominated in CHF. The investor bears all the risks in connection with a possible exchange rate risk between the product currency, the currency of the components of the Underlying, and his reference currency.

4. Additional Terms

Modifications

If an Extraordinary Event as described in Section IV of the Issuance Programme occurs in relation to the Underlying / a component of the Underlying or if any other extraordinary event (force majeure) occurs, which makes it impossible or particularly cumbersome for the Issuer, to fulfil its obligations under the Structured Products or to calculate the value of the Structured Products, the Issuer shall at its own discretion take all the necessary actions and, if necessary may modify the terms and conditions of these Structured Products at its own discretion in such way, that the economic value of the Structured Products after occurrence of the extraordinary event corresponds, to the extent possible, to the economic value of the Structured Products prior to the occurrence of the extraordinary event. Specific modification rules for certain types of Underlyings stated in Section IV of the Issuance Programme shall prevail. If the Issuer determines, for whatever reason, that an adequate modification is not possible, the Issuer has the right to redeem the Structured Products early.

Market Disruptions

Compare specific provisions in the Issuance Programme.

Selling Restrictions

The selling restrictions contained in the Issuance Programme are applicable (EEA, U.S.A. / U.S. persons, Guernsey). The Issuer has not undertaken any actions to permit the public offering of the Structured Products or the possession or the distribution of any document produced in connection with the issuance of the Structured Products in any jurisdiction other than Switzerland. The distribution of these Final Terms or other documents produced in connection with the issuance of the Structured Products and the offering, sale and delivery of the Structured Products in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons, which have received these Final Terms or any other documents produced in connection with the issuance of the Structured Products, such as the Issuance Programme, Termsheets, marketing or other selling material, are required by the Issuer to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions.
